Dear Mrs. Edwards:

Recently I discovered a query which was published in the 19 Sept. 1985 edition of Family Pioneers in which you inquired about the Earleling family.

I have a connection with the Earlelings which I will detail below. I have ~~to~~ no additional information on the Earleling line, but I am in hopes that you will be able to help me establish my connection with the family of Rev. Henry Earleling of N.C. and D.C.

My maternal great-great-grandfather, William Earleling/Earleling Brady was born 6 Feb. 1847 in Ashley County, Ark. He died 12 July 1919 in Texas County, Ark. He served in the Confederate Army, enlisting in Jan., 1863, in Monroe, La. at the age of 15 and deserting in March, 1863 at the age of 16. After his desertion, he never returned to Arkansas nor did

Venters, 2

He communicated with his family again.
In 1875, he married Sarah Elizabeth Baker in Davis County, Ga. He refused to discuss his family with his children, who never knew the names of their grandparents or of their father's siblings.

After much research, I located him in the 1870 and 1880 censuses of Ashley County. His father was Thomas Brady
b. 1815 Mississippi. His mother's name was Holland, b. 1825, Ga. In the 1870 census, Thomas Brady's family lived next to the family of Easterland Venters, b. 1800 Ga., and his wife, Lenora.
In their household are two Brady children.
In 1880, in Jones County, Ga., Easterland Venters married Mary Johnson. Evidently,
Lenora is Venters' second wife.

For several reasons, it is my belief that Holland Brady's father was Easterland Venters. Easterland Venters was the son of Stephen Venters of Jones County, Georgia, who came there from Washington County,
N.C., ca. 1811.

Studying the formation of Washington County, N.C., it would seem that Stephen Venters was the son of Moses Venters of Duplin, Dorris, & Newber Counties, North Carolina. Moses Venters served in the American Revolution and in the Colonial wars.

[Please, forgive the change in ink. The other pen is difficult to hold and further impairs my writing, which isn't good. Next time I shall type, my typewriter is at my office and I am writing this at my home.]

Moses Venters also appears in the early records as Vitters / Ritters / Ristors. The land patents of North Carolina reveal that Moses Venters patented land with ad adjacent to Rev. Henry Estelizing in Duplin County in the late 1750's and early 1760's. In checking the land records of Duplin County, I find several joint mentions of Henry Estelizing and Moses Venters / Ritters. I know that Rev. Henry Estelizing and

His wife, Ellen Bennett, had several sons and three daughters. In seeking a connection with my Venters line, I conclude that Stephen Venters may have married a daughter of Rev. Henry Eastling.

I know that Henry Eastling and his family moved to Marlborough County, South Carolina. I have, however, found no records of the Venters family in Marlborough County. I still, however, strongly feel that Stephen Venters married one of Henry's daughters before he moved to South Carolina.

As it is true you know, many of the Eastlings left Marlborough County and moved to Twiggs County, Ga., after which time they moved to Americus in Sumter County. After leaving the Confederate Army, William Eastland Brady told his children that he stayed a short while with family in Americus, Ga., which is why I further believe that the Venters ^{Eastling} connection did exist.

In genealogy, of course, I know that one cannot suppose, but, however, my suppositions are not unfounded.

I hope that you can help me prove the Venters - Easterling connection. I have established the following lineage:

(1) Henry Easterling, Sr. m. Elizabeth Widdington

(2) Henry Easterling, Jr. m. Ellen Bennett

Although I am only 16 years old,
I am not a novice. For five years I have traced my genealogy. Many of my lines I have well documented to royalty, and I have written a 570 page Book on the Evans - Brady family which has been published. I work at the Family Tree in Baltimore, and undertake professional research for clients.

Do you have any Heargis lines with which I might help you?? I would be glad to do whatever I can for you.

I will gladly pay you for postage and photocopies and will exchange whatever information I have with you.

Was the Easterling Herman? Do you have any more info. on the ancestors of Henry Easterling, Jr. or of Robert Widdowson?
Do you have any marriages for the daughters of Henry Easterling, Jr.?

Could Althea Eastling have married
Moses Venters?

I look forward to hearing from you.
Please forgive this mess. I do not write well, and I will try to type my next letter. I type much better than I write.

Thank - you very much,

Sincerely,

Danny Knight
